Ramírez, Jose, House (TEX-3130)

Demolished, (inundated by Falcon Reservoir). Stone, 33' x 17'7", one-story, single-room structure with walls 2 1/2' thick, nearly flat roof drained through six "gargolas" of mesquite which penetrated the high parapet. Except for front and rear doors of cypress, the only openings were small gun ports indicating that this was essentially a fortification. Built in 1781. 4 sheets (1961, including site plan, plans, elevations, sections).

Card prepared June 1975.
